History

The Board of Common Undergraduate Courses (BCUC) was started in 1989 with its first director being the late Prof. Fredrick N. Onyango who served until 1990. The second director who took over from the late Onyango was Prof. Godfrey Muriuki who served up to 1995. Prof. Muriuki is the current special students' advisor and Chancellor, Kisii University. The third director to serve the Board was Prof. Raphael Waruingi Mwangi. Prof. Peter K'Obonyo-the fourth director served until 2002 before Prof. Collette Akinyi Suda took over as the fifth director serving between 2002 to 2007. Prof. Suda became Secretary, Ministry of Gender and Sports after she left the Board until 2013 when she became the first Principal Secretary for Science and Technology in the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology. The sixth and current director is Prof. Jacob O. Midiwo who has served since 2007. Prof. Midiwo handed over to the new director, Dr. Stephen Kibet Moindi in 2015.
